*G. There was an accident where a motor vehicle ran into a trailer on Doncea Street in the spring of 2013. Officers Kevin Barnhill and Shane McKibben responded to the scene. After several minutes these officers requested assistance and dispatch was unable to locate backup officers due to an unusually high amount of calls for service. I notified dispatch that I was several miles away but would be responding for assistance. When I arrived, the two police officers along with five or six firemen had a white male on the ground and it took several minutes to get the man cuffed. After cuffed, 240-pound Officer McKibben stood on the back of the arrested person while he was face down on the ground. I ordered McKibben to get off of the man and noticed that he was having difficulty breathing and summoned fire personnel that had walked away.
